

2018 4-H Poultry Class

Supervisor: VACANT

Rules & Regulations

Entries

1. Enter all poultry on Thursday August 2, 2018 between 10 am and 12 noon.
2. Only 2 entries per exhibitor will be allowed.
3. Entry forms should include the following: Variety, Age, and Use.
4. Pen space will be on a first come basis: any birds arriving after pen space is gone will have to furnish their own pens.
5. Entries will be released on Saturday August 4, 2018 for exhibitors to pick-up; after 2 pm.

Health Regulations

1. Sick and dirty animals will not be permitted. The supervisor or assistant will be the judge as to what constitutes a sick or dirty animal.
2. An exhibitor will not enter animals exposed to or affected with any contagious or infectious disease. These rules will be enforced by the Utah State Board of Agriculture. The show management shall return to the owner any animal showing any symptoms of illness.
3. All poultry entered are the responsibility of the exhibitor. All exhibitors must check their birds daily, or premiums will not be awarded.
4. The 4-H is not responsible for the loss or death of a bird while on exhibit at the Wasatch County Fair.

Judging and Awards

1. Judging will be done on August 2, at 1 pm.
2. Ribbons will be given to all animals
3. A judge will not be interrupted while judging. Exhibitors will not be allowed in the aisle while the judging is taking place.
4. Premiums will be paid, and ribbons awarded
